Private Interview – Judging will be based on personality, poise, speaking ability, personal achievement in education, civic and community participation. Interviews will be five minutes in length and end at the five-minute mark. There is no final statement. Required dress for interview competition is a tasteful, age appropriate short dress, jumpsuit or pants with jewelry and footwear that complement the outfit. No cocktail attire please.

Casual Wear – Your casual wear will be modeled in a fast-paced modeling style. A casual outfit of your choice that best displays your personality is to be worn. Miss contestant will present her community engagement / platform statement speech while wearing this outfit. The outfit can represent a hobby, occupation, extracurricular activity, ethnic/cultural heritage, a sharp school outfit, a fun night out and the list goes on. Use this area of competition as an opportunity to set yourself apart – be unique! Judging of this portion will be on appearance, poise and personality. Outfits that could serve as evening wear are not permitted and points will be deducted.

Community Engagement / Platform Statement – Each contestant will be given up to 30 seconds to speak on the value of community service or a platform in which they are involved and intend to promote if they are selected as Miss Henry County Fair. Do not over rehearse your speech. Contestants will be judged on their ability to spread awareness and encourage others to advocate for their cause as well as their stage presentation. Do not state your name and title in your speech. Note cards and props are not permitted.

Evening Gown Competition – Contestants will model their evening gowns of choice. Judging of this portion will be on appearance, poise and stage presence. Must wear long gown.

On Stage Question – The question will be a question from interview that the judges pick.

Photogenic – This is mandatory for the miss category. Photos will be judged and Miss Photogenic will be named. Photos must be at least 8 x 10, can be in color or B&W. Please label photos on the back with person's name.
